EARTHQUAKE HITS IMPERIAL VALLEY DAMAGE IS GREAT

District in Southern California Is Devastated by Earth Tremors Last Night

MEXICALI SUFFERS GREATEST
Property Loss in Earthquake Region Estimated Today at Fully $250,000

EL CENTRO ALSO STRUCK HARD

Calexico and Imperial Report Heavy Damage but San Francisco Is Untouched

LOS ANGELES, Cal., June 23.—Another sharp earthquake was felt in the Imperial valley region at 11:45 a. m. today. Advice received by Colonel W. H. Holabird of the California Benevolent company stated that the latest shock did only slight damage. The great irrigation projects in that territory were but little affected.

EL CENTRO, Cal., June 23.—Looters are reported to have been shot down in Mexicali, Mexico, but last night's earthquake itself is believed to have caused no loss of life there, according to refugees arriving here today.

Scores of persons were slightly injured in Imperial valley towns, but rumored large loss of life has not been confirmed.

Crossed wires caused many fires here and in Brawley, Calexico and Imperial, but they were quickly extinguished.

After the hour of terror from eight to nine o'clock, hundreds, fearing to re-enter their homes, slept on lawns and in streets.

Escapes Miraculous

Miraculous escapes from wholesale deaths were related today. Falling walls from the Security Savings bank building here shattered Baldridge's drug store, crowded at the time. A few persons were slightly injured.

The Masonic temple here was split through the middle, but did not collapse and the occupants of the structure escaped in safety.

Numerous brick buildings in the valley were wrecked, the three shocks noted here, all with a noticeable circular movement, spraying the bricks and debris in all directions. Remarkably few persons on the streets were hit.

While lighting plants throughout the district were put out of commission a bright moon aided in relief and salvage work, which began immediately after the tremors stopped.

Loss Estimates at $250,000

The property loss in the quake district was estimated at $250,000. Irrigation systems were not seriously damaged. A number of contraband Chinamen, detained at Mexicali, disappeared after the earthquake and may have escaped into the United States.

Martial Law Proclaimed

Martial law was proclaimed in Mexicali and no Americans were allowed to cross the border from Calexico.

At least two distinct shocks were reported although the terror-stricken Mexicans who fled from their rambling shanties afterward stated that tremors followed from about 10 o'clock last night until shortly before nine.

At the first tremor the people in the valley towns rushed into the streets. Lighting plants were almost instantly put out of commission and the inhabitants were forced to flee to darkness to open places where they camped for the night.

In El Centro the police immediately took charge of the situation. Sidewalks were roped off to prevent accidents from walls rendered shaky. Mounted armed guards protected property from looting.

Several small brick buildings on Main street were leveled. The Masonic temple and new Barbara Woolworth hotel in El Centro were damaged. Fire destroyed the Delta Mercantile company's wholesale plant. The El Centro hotel annex collapsed.

At Imperial, Cal., one side of the McHenry theater was bent inward and the entire structure threatens to collapse momentarily.

Lantern Starts Fire

The Globe mills at Calipatria are reported to have burned. The Brawley, Cal., high school was damaged. The earthquake overturned a lantern in the house of A. I. Morgan, capitalist residing between Heber and El Centro, and the resulting fire destroyed the place. At Heber, a pillar

CITY OF LEMBERG FALLS TO THE COMBINED AUSTRO-GERMAN ARMY UNDER MACKENZEN AFTER SIEGE OF TWO WEEKS

FORMER LA CROSSE PEOPLE RESIDE IN EARTHQUAKE REGION

G. H. Timmings Family and Mrs. Tom Johnson Live Near Scene of Devastation

TIMMINGS FORMER Y. M. C. A. HEAD

People Live at Blythe, Eighty Miles from Mexicali, Scene of Heavy Damage

Six former La Crosse people and one former resident of Caledonia, Minn., are residents of Imperial Valley, California, where the destructive earthquake occurred. They are Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Timmings and four children, and Mrs. Tom Johnson. Mr. Timmings was for years secretary of the La Crosse Y. M. C. A. and Mrs. Timmings was Gertrude Perin, a teacher in the La Crosse schools. Mrs. Johnson is the daughter of the late Arthur Sprague, Caledonia, and a cousin of Mrs. W. M. Collieran of this city.

All of these people are located at Neighbor, near Blythe, about eighty miles from Mexicali, where the greatest damage occurred, and perhaps sixty miles from El Centro.

No word has been received in La Crosse from the former residents, but anxiety felt here relates to possible property loss, as dispatches do not indicate grave danger in that section. A brother of Mrs. Johnson, living at Los Angeles, is expected to furnish information regarding the group at Neighbor.

BIG CROWD COMES TO MARCH IN THE EAGLES' PARADE

Thousand Come in This Morning and Streets Are Filled with Bands and Marchers

MILWAUKEE BUNCH 500 STRONG

Come with Big Band and Serenade the Mayor as Preliminary to Morning Concert

One thousand Eagles, formed in marching clubs, drill teams and bands from Milwaukee, Grand Rapids, Wausau, Prairie du Chien, Janesville and Marshfield, arrived in the city at intervals from daylight until noon today, adding the final flutter to the big flock of birds already in the city. As far as uniforms and enthusiastic conduct went, the new arrivals outdid themselves and the streets downtown were filled with noise and color this morning.

A large Milwaukee band did serenade duty all morning. Arriving early they did not stop to rest until Mayor A. A. Bentley, city officials and others about the city had been entertained.

Andre-Kreutz band met every train. Whether there was one or five hundred, the number the Milwaukee

PRESIDENT NAMES POSTMASTERS IN FIVE NEAR TOWNS

Democratic Patronage in Galesville, Viroqua, Westby, Osseo and Eau Claire Finally Disposed of

WASHINGTON, June 23.—Viroqua, Westby, Osseo, Galesville and Eau Claire are among a list of Wisconsin cities for which the president today announced recess appointments of postmasters. In these cities the appointments were: Galesville, Nels Pederson. Viroqua, W. N. Coffland. Westby, J. Davidson. Osseo, John Ring. Eau Claire, C. F. West.

It is presumed that these appointments come at this time, after long delay, as a result of the final adjustment of the difficulties that arose in relation to appointments following the election of Paul O. Hustung as United States senator. Joseph E. Davies, commissioner of commissioner of corporations, had been made the arbiter of Wisconsin appointments, and it is understood that the election of a democratic senator found the commissioner committed to some appointments not acceptable to the new slogan. Last week the amicable settlement of disputes, and Senator Hustung's assumption of the customary control of patronage, were announced.

Other Wisconsin postmasters named were: Beloit, C. W. Steele; Chetek, Carl Whittaker; Clintonville, J. Trenlow; Dodgeville, J. E. O'Neill; Elsworth, M. M. Sanderson; Hartland, E. J. Pynn; Iron River, J. G. A. Moltenhoff; Lancaster, E. E. McCoy;

Call Off Deliberations of State Aerie Until Thursday Morning Session

TODAY THEY WATCH RITUAL

Janesville and Wausau Degree Teams Present the Work in Competition

Delegates to the state aerie took a holiday today to join in the fun and excitement of the "big day." There was no business transacted either morning or afternoon. The convention having adjourned yesterday afternoon until 10 o'clock Thursday morning. Thursday morning and afternoon sessions are expected to be the most important of the week.

Discussing the work of the convention yesterday, State President William H. Armstrong declared that the deliberations were the most interesting and important of any state convention in the history of Wisconsin Eagles. He referred to the reports of the condition of each aerie, which occupied the attention of the state representatives practically all day yesterday.

A special committee was appointed

Slavs Fall Back Toward Brody After Having Occupied the City for Nine Months

IMPORTANT MILITARY BASE LOST

Russians Believed to Have Withdrawn Guns and Ammunition Before the Capture

BERLIN, June 23.—The German war office this afternoon confirmed the Austrian official statement of the capture of Lemberg. The Austrian right wing also stormed and captured the town of Sczerzec, twenty miles south of Lemberg. North and northwest of Lemberg the Russians are everywhere retreating in the region of the San and the Vistula.

VIENNA, June 23.—Lemberg has fallen before the triumphant sweep of the combined Austro-German armies. The Galician capital, occupied by the Russians since September 3, 1914, is now free of the enemy and the first Austrian troops have entered the town. The Slavs are falling back in a northeasterly direction toward Brody.

A brief bulletin was flashed here from Austrian field headquarters today. It indicated a desperate struggle.

Gay with the brilliantly colored uniforms of drill teams and marching clubs, dotted with comedy make-ups that set the crowded sidewalks laughing, the crowning event of the Eagles' twelfth annual convention took place this afternoon when the annual parade was held.

Close to 1,500 men were in line, with half a dozen bands. Led by city officials of La Crosse and state officers of the Eagles, the parade stretched for close to a mile before it ended with the white clad marching club of La Crosse, equipped with red hats and pennants.

The drill teams of Milwaukee, Wausau and Janesville aroused perhaps the most interest of all the paraders, as they performed intricate evolutions along the line of march. All of them evoked big applause.

Sixty from Winona

Prominent in the line were sixty visiting Eagles of the Winona aerie, clad in white linen dusters with purple collars, and sporting tiny red, white and blue parasols. They were led by an attenuated Uncle Sam in full costume, and were given an enthusiastic reception all along the line.

The laughing hit of the procession was the band that headed the Grand Rapids delegation. The members were in all kinds of disorderly costumes, sunbonnets and Mother Hubbard being principally affected.

The Marshfield marching club's effort aroused much interest and applause. The Marshfield men were all in white, and marched three deep, the center man of each squad carrying a huge parasol, from which brilliant streamers extended to the men on either hand. They were followed by their ladies, marching in similar order.

Many and variegated, and generally effective, were the costumes that enlivened the parade. The Milwaukee club was dressed in red-striped white trousers, blue coats and white caps. On the pockets were sewed white eagles, below which were the letters F. O. E. White shoes completed the uniform.

The drill team representing aerie No. 251, Wausau, caused considerable interest.

Short Story

AN OLD MAN'S DARLING

By MARTHA McCULLOCH-
WILLIAMS

Copyright, 1915, by the McClure
Newspaper Syndicate

"Marry him! Quick! That's my advice," Mrs. Borwick shot at Carolyn, who gazed meditatively in the fire.

She had just put the case to her friend and social mentor—the case of Reul Norris, Esq., widower, aged almost 70, long on wealth, short on grammar, alone in the world except for sundry grandchildren, who regarded him in a nature of an investment.

He had fallen violently a victim to Carolyn's charms—Carolyn, a daughter of the gods, divinely tall and fair; also poorer than poverty from the fact that with a bread-and-cheese income she had a position demanding trifles and champagne; also, again, conscious that her charms were at apogee—henceforth change must mean their waning.

That is to say, she was on the edge of 30. Many men had loved her—half of them well enough to propose. But the suitors who had been in earnest had not been the right sort. Well enough, perhaps—if she had loved them—but, lacking love, out of the question.

There had never been a question with regard to Henry Alban, who had said in the beginning, "We dare not love, being paupers." The saying had not hindered his hanging about Carolyn until Mrs. Borwick was in despair. Then suddenly Melva Lane, with a million on hand and several others in prospect, had been thrown in his way—with the result of a sudden secret wooing, and an astounding runaway to Paris, where still the pair abode.

"Don't you want a wedding trip to Paris?" Mrs. Borwick went on, a little fearfully. She had never quite dared to speak to Carolyn of Alban. She did it now with malice aforethought and the best intentions.

Carolyn frowned the least bit. "I was thinking of that," she said, suddenly sitting straighter. "I can go—if I choose. I can have half the world if I choose."

"Then say yes! Do!" Mrs. Borwick entreated.

Carolyn smiled more faintly than she had frowned. "I would—if I had not a troubling sense of fairness," she answered. "My captive, poor old fellow, is so amazingly decent over everything, almost apologetic over his wealth—it is very much greater than anybody knows. Told me—but not in a way of making a price—just let me know he could do right by the grandchildren—that is his very phrase—yet leave me royally rich."

"He doesn't talk thus early of leaving you?" Mrs. Borwick cried, astounded.

Carolyn nodded. "He has lost his head—not his reason," she said, smiling bitterly. "Ten years at the outside he measures my bondage. After that, with millions and the world before me, I know he hopes, although he does not say it, I will find the bondage to have been worth while."

"That's fine. I've no patience with you—splitting hairs and haggling," Mrs. Borwick exploded.

Carolyn got up slowly, in such fashion that all the slender yet opulent charm of her was manifest. "I am his latest craze; he has come to regard me as other men old and 'ich regard their hobbies. He asks so little of me—only to endure him, let him worship me and give me a setting he thinks I deserve. It—it hurts me—here—putting a slim hand to her long, white throat. "If I could either love him or hate him, I'd take him in a minute."

"You'd take him anyway if you had never known that wretched Henry Alban?" Mrs. Borwick flung back fretfully. "He is one reason I'm so wild to have you make this match. Have you heard that Melva's fortune was all but wiped out in that railroad reorganization?"

"No! Poor thing! It must be dreadful to lose your charm for an adored husband," Carolyn answered reflectively. Then, as a big dark blue car hurried up to the door, she shut her teeth and said through them: "Elmor, you may congratulate me before the fact."

The wedding was like the social event of the season. All the grandchildren came to it—bearing gifts like the Greeks of old. They went away appeased in a sort, but unsatisfied. Grandad had spoken out through his lawyers. Each heir presumptive had got a rich portion delivered in hand. All that remained was settled inalienably and a fee upon the new wife, Mrs. Carolyn Endersby Norris—this after her husband's death, while he lived she would have only a large independent income.

It was all like a dream come true to Carolyn—she who had been forced to count her pennies could, if it pleased her, spend thousands. She had, further, a husband who delighted to shower her with the richest gifts, who was always listening intently to find out the things she cared most about and tossing them into her lap, figuratively, of course—one cannot thus toss a country place, hunters, carriages with pairs and coachmen, pony cars completely equipped, town houses, opera boxes and all that goes with them. Carolyn seemed to be a glorified Cinderella, and, being very womanly human, was joyous in being so.

Her husband, fresh colored, white-haired, still erect and not too portly, fitted into the picture—until he opened his mouth. Then she cried in soul—he made such havoc with the queen's English. Yet her sense of fair play made her keep the cringing hidden. It would torture him to know what she suffered, and she owed him so much. Having made her bargain open-eyed, she was bound to stand by it. Therefore she insisted upon his presence at many times and places that did not imperatively require it.

Thus it happened he was beside her, and in full tide of speech, at an afternoon function at which she met the Albans. Melva had blossomed into a grande dame of Paris. Her marcelled locks were now a pure Titian hue instead of their blighted dingy brown. She wore also the newest thing in complexions and a gown that was very last word.

Yet her husband's haggard eyes found no delight in her. He strode up to Carolyn, almost heedless of his lawful partner, caught her hand between both his, but for half a minute spoke no word. Then, with a bare acknowledgement of her husband's greeting, he drew her a little apart from the throng, saying as he looked her up and down: "You take my breath! But you were always—unusual."

"Explain, please," Carolyn murmured, looking down. Within she was trembling, but her outer seeming was of gay challenge. Unconfessed, even to herself, she had loved the man beside her to a degree that had made her marriage seem almost sacrilege. The ghost of that love had stood between her and the royally generous other man who had made life a fairy tale.

Now she knew herself fully avenged. Alban was bitterly unhappy. He looked her over again, then said: "Think of having all the money there is, yet remaining—human!"

A glance at his wife barred the door. A strange gladness was growing in her heart—she had so dreaded this minute. "It was showing her Fate had been wholly kind."

"I think we agreed at the very first it was not the love but the lack of money that was the root of evil," she said gayly. "Being thus early wise, of course we are safe. You also appear to be quite human."

"Too human," he whispered. "Why did you let me do it, Carolyn?"

He stopped short. Without a word she left him precipitately, darting almost straight back to her husband's side. She clung to the old man's arm openly, even proudly, although he was decanting to Mrs. Alban upon Carolyn's wonderful achievements in home furnishing—to the utter rout and confusion of grammar rhetoric and periods. Empire, Queen Anne, Louis Quatorze, Renaissance, what not, fell trippingly from his tongue—and always in the wrongmost possible connection.

Yet Mrs. Alban was listening sympathetically—her face was even as near wistful as her new complexion permitted.

When they shook hands in parting she whispered audibly: "My dear, I'm so glad for you—you're as wise as you were always good and beautiful. Lord! How I'd love to be an old man's darling!"

"It really isn't half bad," Carolyn returned amiably, with a satisfied nod at her husband, who was devouring her with adoring eyes.

GAYS MILLS GIVES PLEASURE MONEY TO STORM VICTIMS

GAYS MILLS, Wis., June 23.—(Special.)—Gays Mills will not make merry on the Fourth of July as the townspeople and farmers for miles around had planned. Plans for the biggest Fourth in the history of the town had been made and a large sum, for the community, had been gathered together.

The money will be donated, with other sums, for the use of those who are suffering on Finley and adjoining ridges from the tornado of June 11.

A vote was taken to decide whether the Fourth of July celebration would be held, and there was not a dissenting voice in the plan to give the sufferers the money. Some of the funds had been donated by those who afterwards were injured and their houses and barns blown away.

Daddy's Bedtime Story—The Little Boy In Colonial Days.

So They Didn't Spare the Rod Much.

BOYS in the old colonial days didn't have so good a time as they have now, especially if they happened to be poor," said daddy. "No, not by any means. Jack will be glad he didn't live in those days when I tell him about it."

"Those boys used to have to work. My, how they did have to work! And if they'd rather play than work they didn't have much of an opportunity to indulge in that desire. There was papa to be reckoned with."

"Papa was often a very solemn gentleman. His hand was heavy, and he had just as soon use it as not. When children were punished in those early colonial days they were really punished. I can assure you. There were no light punishments like standing in the corner or like going without one of your meals. Parents believed in the old adage, 'Spare the rod and spoil the child.' So they didn't spare the rod very much."

"Papa was solemn because he had troubles. The family lived in a rough log cabin with just the things they had to have. Papa didn't bring home packages of candy to the children on Saturday night or things like that. They didn't know what candy was like."

"Papa had to conquer the wilderness that grew around all about the cabin. The great trees had to be felled and chopped up for two reasons—to furnish firewood and to make room for the laying out of a little farm on which to raise grain and vegetables for the living of the family."

"The little boy had to help his father in the field and in the barn where father kept a horse and maybe a cow or two. He had to get up before dawn and go out to the stable and help with the work, and if it were winter he had to bring in the wood and chop it, maybe, and his poor little hands were pretty cold and red. I don't see how they could have helped being so, and while he was busy helping father his sisters were just as busy helping mother."

"There was a school, but it wasn't much like the schools they have nowadays. Oh, my, no! It was situated in the woods, and the children came to it from long distances. But the days of schooling for the boy were apt to be few because he was needed at home to help his father, and those for the girls were few because they had to help mother, and people didn't think those days that girls needed much schooling, anyway."

"And there were the Indians to look out for, for the redskins were often at war with the settlers. The children had to mind their p's and q's or they would have been scalped."

"I think on the whole children of these days have a pretty good time."

ENTIRE LABYRINTH HELD BY FRENCH

PARIS, June 23.—Three weeks of continued assault upon the Labyrinth has placed nearly the whole of the German positions in that section in the hands of the French, a review given out here this afternoon stated.

"The Germans concentrated against us batteries of light and heavy guns, including 300 five-millimeter mortars," said the statement. "The first assault, May 10, captured the first line of defenses. Until June 17 the struggle continued foot by foot, with hand grenades and bayonets, soldiers on both sides fighting often in their shirt-sleeves, until the German grip was finally loosened."

WARDEN'S HONOR SYSTEM NOT DEAD

Murder of Wife Was Not Committed by Honor Man Allen Explains

JOLIET, Ill., June 23.—The trusty who attacked and murdered the wife of Warden Edmund M. Allen of Joliet penitentiary, early Sunday morning as she lay in her bed, did not kill the honor system which was the bereaved husband's life work. This was made plain today when the warden pointed out that it was not an "honor man" who was suspected of killing his wife, but a trusty. The trusty system, it was explained, is in vogue in every prison in the world—even those conducted on theories and practices of ages ago. An announcement was expected from Warden Allen today that he would leave the penitentiary but would keep up his work to advance the lot of men sentenced to prisons and jails.

ZEPPELIN RAID DISASTROUS

BERLIN, via Wireless to Sayville, June 23.—The German Zeppelin raid on the British northeast coast on the night of June 15 destroyed the navy arsenal at South Shields and caused enormous losses by fire, according to the officers of the Swedish steamer lotum, which has arrived at Stavanger.

Many bombs were dropped on the Armstrong gun works, near Newcastle, the steamer's officers reported, and seventeen persons were killed and forty injured.

Lime Medication in Tuberculosis

In the N. Y. Medical Record of December 5, 1914, Dr. John North, of Toledo, says: "I have come to the conclusion that one of the most prominent causes (of tuberculosis) is 'lime starvation.' * In all cases of incipient tuberculosis there is a deficiency of calcium. Many do not eat food containing enough lime. * In such cases we must resort to lime medication."

Eckman's Alternative should be given a fair trial in such cases, because one of its chief ingredients is calcium (lime), in such combination with other remedial agents as to be easily assimilated by the average person.

Where its use is combined with proper diet, fresh air and hygienic living conditions, we believe it will prove beneficial in any case of tuberculosis.

It contains no opiates, narcotics or habit-forming drugs, so is safe to try. Eckman Laboratory, Philadelphia. Sold by George E. Mariner, Chas. E. Beyschlag and leading druggists.

and Wanton Wiles

Another Tragedy

Oh, two-piece suit of yesterday,
I need thee once again,
But thy appearance nowadays
Cannot but cause me pain.

I hung thee up last autumn in
My clothes press without fear.
I counted on thee, good kind friend,
To help me out this year.

Alack, thou'rt now a peek-a-boo,
And that is not the worst;
Thy bosom and thy tails are gone,
The moths got to you first.

In Elevator Style

"I tell you," said Dubleigh,

"Rawson is a clever man."

"Think so?" said Whibbles.

"Yes," said Dubleigh. "He raised

my salary 50 per cent for a

Christmas surprise, and then reduced

it 75 per cent as New Year economy."

Is Conculsive Proof

"You think the American people

lack a sense of humor?"

"Yes," replied the frank visitor

from abroad; "otherwise you wouldn't find so many people weighing more than 200 pounds who dance the tango."

Maybe a Faux Pas

"I've promised to go to supper

with some one else, Mr. Blaque;

but I'll introduce you to a very handsome and clever girl."

"I don't want a handsome and clever girl; I want you."

Never Told It Again

They were discussing in the workshop the question of corporal punishment.

"I believe in the old maxim," said

the foreman, "Spare the rod and spoil the child." When I was a boy

I knew I received many chastise-ments and it did me good. On one occasion, I remember, I was punished for telling the truth."

"It cured you," whispered a voice

from the far corner.

'Why don't you try it?' So I did, and

Reward for Kindness

JOLIET CONVICTS PLOT TO STORM SUSPECTS CELL

Negro Suspected of Murder
of Warden Allen's Wife Object of Wrath of Prisoners

JOLIET, Ill., June 23.—Despite apparent quieting of the convicts at Joliet penitentiary following their riotous outbreak Monday, it was learned this afternoon that prison guards had discovered a plot among the convicts to storm the solitary cell where "Chicken Joe" Campbell, negro suspect, was held.

Official confirmation of the reported plot was not forthcoming. It was admitted, however, that for precautionary reasons, Campbell had been removed to a room in the residence section of the institution, where he is now under lock and key, and closely guarded, within fifty feet of the room in which Mrs. Edmund Allen, wife of the warden, was burned to death early Sunday morning.

Another development today was the voluntary statements made by two trustees that they were in the administration building about 6:30 Sunday morning, and saw Campbell run from the warden's suite and look up at the windows of the room in which Mrs. Allen's body was found.

The theory is that Campbell and another trustee looked into the room perhaps less than five minutes after the fire set but that they are holding to their stories of ignorance of the details for fear of suspicion that naturally would fall on them.

HOSPITAL CONTRACT AWARDED
WASHINGTON, June 23.—William D. Lovell of Minneapolis today was awarded the contract for constructing a frame hospital at Fond du Lac, Wis., by the United States Indian office. His bid was $19,945.

ASKS DIVORCE
Mrs. ... Dingel, 1006 Vine street, today started suit in circuit court against her husband, Henry Dingel. She alleged cruel and inhuman treatment in her complaint.

MILLS TO FEEDS
NEWARK, N. J., June 23.—Rube Mills, the former crack first baseman of Notre Dame university, today donned a Federal league uniform for the first time. He will cover the initial sack for the Newark Federals.

The War Office Statement
Touches Little, However,
on Fall and Tells of Slav Victories

PETROGRAD, June 23.—The Russians have evacuated Lemberg. The withdrawal of troops began on Monday night and continued throughout yesterday. Less than 40,000 men were defending the western approaches against fierce Austrian attacks early yesterday and it is possible that this force has retired eastward, leaving the Galician capital free to the enemy.

WASHINGTON WARNS MEXICAN LEADERS

Foreigners' Lives and Property Must Be Protected
in Capital Says
Warning

WASHINGTON, June 23.—Mexican leaders all had been warned today that foreigners' lives and property, especially in Mexico City, must be respected. The latest warning followed news of threatened street fighting in the capital. Communications being cut, it was not known whether Carranzistas had occupied the city.

The Sonora situation seemed improved. The Villista commander at Guaymas had undertaken to get foreigners out of the Yaqui valley. It was hoped an American landing would be unnecessary.

INQUIRE INTO POSTAL TROUBLE
LONDON, June 23.—An official investigation has been ordered of the complaints that letters passing between the United States and Sweden have been opened by British censors. Legal authorities here, however, hold that the examination of such correspondence is justified under The Hague convention.

EXTRA

MILWAUKEE WINS CONTEST

Milwaukee wins first prize in the parade contest this afternoon for the best showing of the various delegations. The awards in all but two places were announced late this afternoon.

Marshfield won second place. Racine won third place and Wausau won fourth place.

Fifth and sixth places will be announced later.

MEXICAN TROOPS FIGHT FOR ORDER NO LANDING NEAR

Admiral Howard Reports
Sincere Effort to Quell
Yaquis; Carranza
Will Fight Us

WASHINGTON, June 23.—The navy department heard by wireless from Admiral Howard, on the Mexican west coast, Mexican soldiers and Yaquis were fighting hard. The authorities seemed to be doing their best to quell the Indians. It looked consequently as if no American landing would be necessary.

In a Yaqui valley fight June 20, the Indians killed 24 of a party of 80 troops. Eight were wounded and 22 missing.

Consul Canada, Vera Cruz, reported the railroad to Mexico City cut in a new place. He said 19 persons were killed Monday, when Zapatistas fired on a Vera Cruz and Isthmus railroad train.

Rafael Nieto, a Carranza official here on business, saw Acting Secretary Lansing today and then announced Carranza never would consent to Gen. Angeles as "peace president" and that any faction which undertook to compel peace would need enough troops to overcome 120,000 armed Mexicans, virtually announcing Carranza would fight any one placed above him.

PRESIDENT TO BE KEPT INFORMED ON HIS VACATION

International Status Will Be at Finger Tips During Rest at Cornish
Home

WASHINGTON, June 23.—Elaborate preparations were completed today to keep President Wilson in touch with the international situation while on his vacation at Cornish, N. H.

It was evident that complications over the allies' interference with American trade would reach a climax shortly.

New York importers with more than $5,000,000 worth of goods tied up in Holland, whence they cannot get them to America because of the danger that British and French warships will seize them, were pressing the administration for aid.

Amazed at English Stand
Captain Prettymann's announcement in the house of commons yesterday that the government plans practically to take charge of Holland's commerce by prohibiting shipments from entering that nation unless consigned to The Netherlands over-seas trust, amazed officials here.

It is believed to foreshadow the holding up of all cargoes from this country, a neutral nation, to Holland, another neutral nation, as a matter of right by Great Britain, that nation only permitting such goods to pass through as suits the plans of those directing her war policy.

No Such Action Anticipated
The administration had not anticipated any further action by Great Britain that would complicate the relations between the two countries. The British embassy here has been advised of the pressure on the administration to demand peremptorily of Great Britain a modification of the latter's order in council. Hopes were expressed that England's new coalition cabinet would appreciate the administration's position.

The president conferred with Lansing at length today. It was understood the latter laid before him all the latest details from American representatives in the belligerent countries.

German Reply Near Completion
Germany's reply to the United States has been partly completed. Ambassador Gerard has so advised President Wilson. He indicated the answer will not be forwarded before the latter part of next week, if present plans are adhered to. Consequently, President Wilson, who will leave here tonight for Cornish, N. H., via Roslyn, L. I., will not return until July 6 and the answer is not expected to receive official consideration before 7, when the president will hold his first cabinet meeting after his brief vacation.

WASHINGTON, June 23.—Only official confirmation this afternoon was lacking to verify the appointment of Robert Lansing, acting secretary of state, as permanent secretary to succeed William Jennings Bryan.

Other cabinet officers began to appear at the department soon after 3 o'clock this afternoon, and it was understood they were congratulating Mr. Lansing on his appointment to the post.

It was believed the announcement of Lansing's appointment would be made about 5 o'clock, an official statement being promised for that time, although the nature of its contents was not predicted.

HARRY K. THAW FIRST WITNESS IN SANITY TRIAL

Defense Springs Surprise
when Famous Prisoner
Is Placed on Stand
This Morning

NEW YORK, June 23.—Attorney John H. Stanchfield, chief counsel for Harry K. Thaw in his fight to prove his sanity, sprung a surprise on the state today by putting the slayer of Stanford White on the stand as his own first witness. Deputy Attorney General Cook was so taken by surprise that he had not prepared to cross-examine the famous prisoner and after occupying the stand for about twenty-five minutes, Thaw was excused. He is, however, subject to recall at any time, when the state is ready to cross-examine him.

John D. Blackburn, connected with the Baltimore & Ohio railroad, and a member of the jury which acquitted Thaw of the conspiracy charge in the escape from Matteawan, the second witness, said Thaw's actions at that time impressed him as being those of a sane person.

Blackburn admitted the jury took a "straw vote" and decided he was sane, despite the fact the court had excluded all testimony bearing on that phase of the case.

U. S. Rejoinder To Germany On Frye Is Ready

WASHINGTON, June 23.—America's rejoinder to Germany in the William P. Frye case may be sent today, it was learned at the state department this afternoon. It was in President Wilson's hands for final review before his departure for Cornish.

In connection with the international situation it also became known that the state department has received a note from London telling of British efforts to mitigate the hardships neutrals are suffering from the order in council. Acting Secretary Lansing said the note had not yet been decoded, and probably would not be made public until London saw fit to give it out.

There's nothing sadder in life than a run-over French heel shoe unless it be the woman who wears it.

SENATE PASSES OR KILLS MANY IMPORTANT BILLS

Concurs in Creation of Conservation Commission with Amendment for Legislative Check

MADISON, Wis., June 23.—The senate concurred in the assembly bill creating a state board of conservation by a vote of 31 to 1, after several amendments had been adopted. The most important of these was one by Senator Bray, providing that any member or employee of the commission could be summoned before either branch of the legislature upon petition of nine senators, and seventeen assemblymen, and requested to answer about any phase of their work. This amendment was adopted by a vote of 22 to 10.

The same amendment was later attached to the board of agriculture bill by a vote of 17 to 16, the lieutenant governor deciding the tie.

Consideration of the agriculture board bill occupied the attention of the senate for over an hour, when a recess was taken until 4:30 this afternoon.

The senate concurred in all assembly amendments to the Ackley water power bill, including the much discussed Nordman amendment by a unanimous vote, and the bill is now up to the governor for his signature.

Reconsideration of the senate's previous action whereby the Heim bill relating to Sunday amusements had been killed, was secured, but final action on the bill was interrupted by the consolidation bills which were on calendar as a special order.

Kill "Blue Sky Cheese" Bill
The "blue sky" cheese bill, allowing the manufacture of skim milk cheese in Wisconsin came to grief in the assembly today when the house killed the measure by a vote of 49 to 35 after a somewhat extended discussion.

Assemblyman Bradley topped off the assault on the bill by saying that skim milk could be fed to hogs and calves with much better effect.

The house sent the bill providing for a board of administration in Milwaukee county for all county institutions to third reading after the Gruenewald amendment, excepting the hospital for the chronic insane was killed.

Save Breeders' Funds
The assembly changed its tactics of last week when the bill repealing the appropriation for the Wisconsin Livestock Breeders' association was reached and the bill was engrossed.

Assemblyman Hambrecht arose to remark that as the appropriation repeal bills for the other state associations, Wisconsin cheesemakers' association, and several others had been killed, the house should show itself consistent and kill this one. But the sentiment was not general as evidenced by the vote of 52 to 26.

Chiropractic Bill Over
The Whitman medical bill pertaining to the regulation of the practice of medicine and the legalizing of the practice of chiropractic was sent to the finance committee after a great deal of oratory in defence and condemnation of the chiropractic science.

The Greig bill allowing the municipality to do work directly, without the intervention of a formal contract was ordered to engrossment.

The reconsideration of the vote by which the tax commission bill was killed was laid over until tonight's session.

AN EAGLE WHOSE ORATORY IS NOT "SPREAD EAGLE"

Judge A. H. Schmidt of Manitowoc One of City's Guests Who Has Won Distinction

KNOWS MANY LA CROSSE PEOPLE

Bosshard, Hartwell, Bunge and Doherty Numbered Among Friends of This College Orator

BUSY FIGURE IN MADISON

Represented State University in Important Inter-collegiate Oratory in the Nineties

(By A. M. Brayton.)

A number of La Crosse gentlemen would deem the Eagle's convention well worth while were its sole compensation the opportunity it offers them to renew the acquaintance of Judge A. H. Schmidt of Manitowoc, whom they associate with pleasant incidents and busy days in the state university at Madison.

The writer is one who enjoyed intimate acquaintance with Judge Schmidt during the days when the name of "The Boy Orator of the Great Lakes" was on every bill announcing college oratory. In my freshman year we roomed in the house at 716 State street, next to the campus. Schmidt was a sophomore, and we locked horns in the "cane rush" in which with the aid of other upper-classmen we were yanked out of Camp Randall and our clothing. In that affair "Tug" Wilson hooked Frank Congdon, La Crosse, around the neck with a cane, and Schmidt refereed the Queensbury meeting in which the two settled their dispute. Incidentally, it was on that day that I first met Judge Ikey Karel, nor pope nor potentate could have more deeply impressed me with his glory. Ikey came from the gridiron with a lame arm, and Frank Congdon took him into the room where Frank and Billy Powell and I went when there was no other place to go, and rubbed the famous "right" with Pond's Extract.

When I met Judge Schmidt with Fred Hartwell in the Stoddard Monday night, I didn't "get him" at the first lamp, but he had me pegged from the start. I was somewhat heavier than as he knew me—the figures are 129-184—but I had no whiskers to deceive him, while he had known a vandyke for my confusion.

A Gift was His. As a member of Philomathia, a debating society, I early became aware of the forensic genius of Judge Schmidt, who was that society's star as well as the star of the university. To illustrate the fancy line of talk our Manitowoc jurist can put up, I submit the record.

Judge Schmidt represented Philomathia in its Sophomore Semi-Public and its "Junior Ex" contests, successfully in both cases, triumphing over representatives of the other four university societies. He was an unassuming fellow, and when he was announced to appear with an oration which Chicago, Oberlin, Northwestern and Michigan participated.

A Year of Triumphs. His senior year, '96, was Judge Schmidt's busy day. He finished his academic course and took freshman law at the same time, but this did not prevent him from winning both the Senior and the Final contests, and the representing Wisconsin in the inter-collegiate contest in which he had been the alternate the previous year. Neither did it prevent the senior class from making him Senior Memorial orator, nor the faculty from making him Commencement orator.

In '97 Schmidt represented Wisconsin in the Iowa-Wisconsin inter-collegiate contest, and in '98 he concluded his college oratory, upon the selection of the law faculty, as Commencement orator for the college of law.

His Hat Off to Doherty. Judge Schmidt recalls John F. Doherty as one of the most gifted orators the university has produced, and openly charges a miscarriage of justice in the decision which, by a margin of three to two, made Jacobs the university orator, Doherty alternate, in the great inter-collegiate debate of his senior year. The student body was solidly of the opinion that John was unquestionably the superior, and considerable feeling was created by the incident.

Senator Otto Bosshard, F. H. Hartwell and George W. Bunge are among the La Crosse men to meet whom, some of them after a period of fifteen years, Judge Schmidt was much pleased.

A College Joke. An incident which created considerable mirth in student circles happened in '95. McCord, one of the real university orators, was a colored boy, and there was considerable good natured rivalry between him and Judge Schmidt, as a result of which they never missed a chance to "hand each other something." The judge's opportunity came one day when he lectured the colored Demosthenes upon the impropriety of having patched the seat of a pair of gray trousers with a bit of black cloth.

It was indeed a pleasant hour I spent with Judge Schmidt last night, reviving old memories of college pranks. Soon he'll go back to Manitowoc and I may not see him for another fifteen years. In that I shall be the loser, but to those who have more frequent opportunity to enjoy his society I give this solemn warning:

"Keep your EAGLE eye on Judge Schmidt!"

on "Bismarck," in competition with such college notables as Martin Gillan and Harry McCord, a grin rippled the face of the university. But they never again laughed at Orator Schmidt.

In his junior year he secured second place in the Final Oratorical contest, and as an alternate represented the U. of W. in the inter-collegiate contest at Iowa State, in 1915.

A GOOD THING

When it Comes Along Don't Let it Get Away From You

"I really feel that it is hardly possible to say too much in favor of Grape-Nuts as a health food," writes a Chicago lady.

"For 9 or 10 years I had suffered from indigestion and chronic constipation caused by the continued use of coffee and rich, heavy foods. My ailments made my life so wretched that I was eager to try anything that held out a promise of help. And that is how I happened to buy a package of Grape-Nuts food last spring.

"That ended my experiments. For in Grape-Nuts I found exactly what I wanted and needed. From the day I began to use it I noticed an improvement and in a very few weeks I found my health was being restored.

"My digestive apparatus now works perfectly and chronic constipation has been entirely relieved. I have gained in weight materially, and life is a very pleasant thing to me so long as I use Grape-Nuts once or twice a day. I have found by experiment that if I leave it off for a few days my health suffers.

"A physician in our town has great success in treating stomach troubles, and the secret of it is that he puts his patient on Grape-Nuts food—it always brings back the power of digestion."

KILL COCKROACHES!

Easy Matter to Exterminate These Filthy Pests

Even a feeble imagination can think of the germs the cockroach
must bring as it crawls around the kitchen and pantry, contaminating
and spoiling food. Now is the time to kill off the cockroaches and free
your home from the repulsive insects. A dozen cockroaches killed
now is better than killing hundreds later.

A two-ounce box of Stearns Electric Paste which you can get for twenty-five cents from any drugist,
will rid your home of cockroaches or water bugs. It is much better than powders, as it can not blow away and get into the food. Easy to use and an absolute exterminator. Directions package.

EARTHQUAKE HITS IMPERIAL VALLEY DAMAGE IS GREAT

of the leading hotel cracked, endangering many lives.

Calexico Hit.
CALEXICO, Cal., June 23.—One person badly hurt by falling bricks
was the only injury to human life in this place during last night's earthquake, so far as known today.

The loss of life, if any, probably is not large throughout the Imperial valley. Conditions are so confused it is impossible to get verification of any loss of life from Calexico.

Felt at San Diego.
SAN DIEGO, Cal., June 23.—Two
earthquake tremors were felt here
last night at 8:02 and 8:58 and while houses were shaken there was no serious damage or any injury to human life, as far as could be learned today.

Yuma, Ariz., which felt the shocks,
reported no damage.

The Southern Pacific railroad immediately sent a relief train to the stricken district in Mexico.

San Francisco Untouched.
SAN FRANCISCO, June 23.—This city did not feel the slightest trace of the earthquake that shook the Imperial valley last night.

Seismograph Registers Shocks.
WASHINGTON, June 23.—The seismograph in the Georgetown observatory here registered about midnight two distinct earthquake shocks. The first began at 11:45
and lasted until 11:27 and the second
from 12:12 until 12:25.

It is stated that these were the earthquakes that are reported to have caused much damage in California.

The shocks were described at the observatory as "not over strong."
They were of about equal intensity.

The sliding of strata was given as
the undoubted reason for the tremors.

Burning, Neb.—"I had mummy pimples
all over my face so thick that you could hardly put the point of a needle on my face without touching one. They would burn and itch and I would scratch them till they would bleed. Then that would leave a mark. Scratching caused the pimples to spread. They disfigured me
while they lasted.

"I underwent two treatments and used different soaps and ointments but it did no good. Then I
of all I used Cuticura Soap and Ointment.
I used the Soap every morning and evening
and the Ointment every evening just before
I went to bed. To-day my face is as clear

BRILLIANT TOGS AND FUNNY STUNTS MARK PROCESSION

able comment as they appeared in their blue and white Turkish uniforms. The men wore the short waistcoat over the collarless shirt,
so commonly seen in the orient. A spread eagle was visible through the open-front coat. The trousers extended only to the knee, white laced
leggings covering the lower limbs.
The shoes were of the same color as the leggings. Long sashes with yellow tassels, combined with sheathed
swords proved the central adorna-ment. At the top of the Turkish headgear was a small gilt eagle, with the letters 251 and F. O. E., above and below, respectively.

An Eagle Band.
The Racine band, the only band in the state composed entirely of Eagles, were seen in Khaki uniforms, edged with black. Sewed on the black collar band were the letters
F. O. E. The caps harmonized with the remainder of the uniform.

The Janesville drill team appeared in white trousers, military-gray
cadet coats and caps. The coats were adorned with the conventional brass bulb buttons and black cord.

The marching club were attired
in white dusters, the collars of which were red. The caps matched the dusters.

The uniforms of the Grand Rapids drill team were of white material with an edging of blue. Small red Eagles decorated the sleeves.

The big parade, which was the chief event of the day, was in five sections, each headed by a band, and some with more than one band in their length. The parade was arranged as follows:

Section One
Trumpeter.
Colors.
Five mounted men.
Police.

Automobiles with state officers,
executive committee members and
city officials.

Brunkhurst band, Milwaukee.
Milwaukee degree team.
Milwaukee uniform rank.
Winona visiting delegation.

Section Two
Racine band.
Racine marching club.
Wausau band.
Wausau marching club.
Wausau degree team.

Section Three
Grand Rapids band.
Grand Rapids marching club.
Second Regiment band of Marshfield.

Section Four
Marshfield March club.
Janesville drill team.

Section Five
"Antigo Dick."
La Crosse Kreutz-Andre band.
La Crosse marching club.
La Crosse aerie members.

The arrangement of the parade as outlined above was the skeleton upon which the procession was formed.
Smaller aerie delegations, which brought no bands or marching clubs, marched in one or the other of the sections, the men being about equally distributed.

Sidney Loaded
The steamer Sidney left the levee
last night loaded to the gunwale with Eagles and their visitors, to many of whom the occasion offered their first opportunity for a trip on the Father of Waters. Behind them they left a city brilliantly lighted and a swarm
with people, the entire city apparently being on the streets to watch the Eagles' doings. The Andre-Kreutz band spent the evening marching from place to place in the business district, giving short concerts at every stop.

Early in the evening, before the steamboat excursion had put off, the band, in front of the Eagles' club,
played a special concert. The music attracted a large number of motorists who were about the streets and traffic for two blocks south of Main street on Fifth street was completely blocked with the cars that were gathered.

Interest this morning, of course,
centered in the big parade and other spectacular events which were scheduled for the day. From the standpoint of the onlooker, today was the most important day of the convention. Parade Marshal Rheinhold Schultz worked far into the night and was at it again bright and early this morning arranging the sections of his procession. He was unable to do more than tentative planning until last night and today, when outside marching clubs and aerie representatives began to pour in for the day.

played, and La Crosse Eagles accompanying them cheered, and the visiting birds cheered in return, and all made merry on the marches back to the Fifth street headquarters.

These are here
The following aeries are represented today:

Tomahawk, Athens, Superior,
Marshfield, Eau Claire, Manitowoc, Milwaukee, Ashland, Wausau, Sheboygan, Racine, Marinette, Rhinelander, Grand Rapids, Green Bay, Beloitt, Merrill, Madison, Oconomowoc, Cuba City, Prairie du Chien, Reeds-
burg, South Milwaukee, Kaukauna, Watertown, Menasha, Kenosha, Sturgeon Bay, Janesville, Beaver Dam, Horicon, Ripon, Shullsburg, Rice
Lake, Hartford, Antigo and Mellen.

But nine cities of the fifty-one expected failed to put in an appearance, included in this list being Fond du Lac, Waupun, Waukesha, Plymouth, Columbus, Woodruff, North Fond du Lac, Medford and Ft. Atkinson.

Forty Grand Rapids Eagles and eighty Wausau Eagles slipped into town on an early morning train today. Wausau had the band and Grand Rapids had the boys with the luns
and they both had marching clubs
that were sights for sore eyes. They celebrated in the early morning all
by themselves, cheering and skylark-
ing up the street after the lustylunged band at 3 a. m.

Although there was but a handful of people to see them, they figured
that many could be made to wake up and hear them and they cut loose
as they struck Main street. Coult's band played as though it was leading the biggest parade on record, and straight-shouldered, the delegates from the two Wisconsin cities marched as though on dress parade.

They shouted and they howled.
"What's the matter with Grand Rapids?" "What's the matter with Wausau?" they yelled and their voices nearly drowned the music.

The delegations marched through the deserted business portion of the city making merry, until they grew tired, and then betook themselves
to the Eagle club rooms, where they stayed until the sleepy-eyed Eagles started to drop in.

The two aeries were scheduled to take prominent places in the parade
of this afternoon.

Commanded by "Billy" Boycott,
former proprietor of the Boycott hotel here, thirty-five Prairie du Chien Eagles, one of the niftiest marching clubs in the state, arrived over the morning at 10 o'clock this morning. They were attired in long dusters and each wore the badge of the Prairie du Chien aerie. The club was met by the Andre-Kreutz
band and a large delegation of La Crosse Eagles and were escorted to the convention headquarters in South Fifth street. The marching club arriving this morning brought the total number of delegates from Prairie du Chien to nearly seventy-five.

Janesville 150 Strong Janesville Eagles "pulled" one of the biggest surprises of the convention week last night when they arrived 150 strong with unique uniforms and a marching club that could march.

Six were expected to come, but the Eagles turned out for the 5:30 o'clock Northwestern with a large number, accompanying the band
that is doing duty at all railroad stations day and night.

As they filed out of the Northwestern coaches, cheer after cheer
went up to greet them and they were escorted to the club rooms in high glee by the local birds.

Playing "It's a Long Way to Tipperary," the Milwaukee delegation,
five hundred strong, arrived over the Milwaukee road at 6 o'clock this morning. Brunkhurst's band led the procession. La Crosse Eagles turned out in force to greet them and together they formed a man's sized parade in itself on the march to the Fifth street headquarters. The aggregation was the gayest of the arrivals, and kept its band busy parading all morning.

Adding another welcome band to the city already chuck full of music, Marshfield Eagles 150 in number, arrived over the Milwaukee at 10:30 o'clock this morning, and were given the greeting accorded all of the late comers. The delegates
had the same enthusiasm displayed
by every Eagle in the city today and they tested their lung power in answer to the cheers that greeted them from the local birds.

GALICIAN CAPITAL RESTORED TO THE TEUTONIC FORCES

gle at the last Russian barriers a few miles west of the town.

"Our second army has conquered Lemberg after a violent fight," read
the official bulletin.

Few Details Received
Though no details of the victory
have been received here, it is not believed the Austro-German booty will be large. Reports to headquarters indicated that the enemy withdrew heavy guns and ammunition supplies
several days ago, and movement of the main body of Russian troops over the railway to Brody began early in the week.

In the final charge at the western gates of Lemberg it is probable that the small body of Russian defenders
were either annihilated or captured,
as was the case at Przemyśl.

Russians Lose Military Base
Capture of Lemberg deprives the Russians of their last military base
in Galicia. Several railways center from the town. The important lines were in the hands of the Austro-Germans before the city fell.

The moral effect of the recapture
of the city overshadows the military victory. The capital of a great Austrian province has been reclaimed
from the enemy; the Russian grip
upon Galicia has been loosened, if not entirely shaken, and the people of Austria have been raised to the high pitch of enthusiasm over Austro-German successes.

The Russians, it is believed here,
will fall back more than twenty miles, making their next stand near Busk, between the branches of the Bug and Stry rivers. There is every reason to believe that the Austro-German pursuit will continue to the Galician border, if not into Russian territory. Headquarters plans, it is understood, contemplate driving the last Russian out of Galicia, and an invasion of Russian Bessarabia on the southeast.

Report Loss of 60,000.
Sixty thousand Russian troops and nine cannon were captured in the Austro-German drive on Lemberg,
according to semi-official statements given out at Berlin today. These figures cover the fighting for Lemberg since June 12.

Report Confirmed in Berlin
Reliable reports that Lemberg had fallen reached Berlin late last night
though they were not confirmed until today. The news was spread by newspaper extras, by telephone and
by the ringing of church bells all over the city.

Great throngs crowded the public squares and parks, flags were hung
out and bands paraded the streets.
Everywhere the capture of Lemberg
is regarded as an important step toward a final victory.

According to the correspondent of the Cologne Gazette, the Russians retreated from Lemberg in wild disorder. All available artillery was sent to the rear before the soldiers began to move. Part of the ammunition was discarded because it has proven of inferior quality.

Russians in Panic
The panic stricken Russian troops
then began to leave Lemberg. Wagon trains blocked the roads; some of the soldiers seized artillery horses and rode madly away. Commands of officers were disregarded; units were broken up in the wild rush for safety
and finally, according to the correspondent, the entire army degenerated into a frenzied mob.

Adjournment.
All business sessions of the state aerie will take place in the Eagles' hall.

The big Eagles' parade this afternoon was caught by the movies, and will be exhibited in movie weeklies
all over the country. W. I. LaCerte, a member of the Wausau aerie, who represents the Photographic Technic,
caught the procession from a balcony at Fifth and Main streets.

The oldest Eagle in the country,
John Hofer, 86, was in a Grand Rapids uniform and marched in the parade. He carried a stick, but didn't find much need for it. Early this morning he said he was "feeling fine,"
although he had been up all night
making the trip here with the Grand Rapids Marching club.

Marshfield aerie, which has some
good singers and some not so good,
is "pushing" a song written by Prof.
Steinmetz, leader of the Second Regiment band, which is here for the parade. Here's the song; sing it to the tune of "Tipperary":

John and Mary were in love
So every one could see
John proposed and Mary said:
"You are the boy for me."
But if I should marry you
And you'd get sick some day
O how could we exist, dear John,
Without your weekly pay?"

CHORUS
Do the right thing and join the Eagles
Do the right thing right now
Take me with you to the convention
A fine time we'll have, I vow
Eagles never worry, all are staunch
and true
It's a long, long time till we'll marry
Unless join you do.

John took Mary's good advice
And now he's a real bird
Mary is a happy girl
John's future is insured
Mary is busy sewing things.
I hear they have a flat
John's saving all his money
For a place to hang his hat.

"Billy" Armstrong and several fellow members of the Eagles of Racine met the incoming Racine band
this morning—almost. The train,
due in La Crosse at 7 o'clock, arrived an hour earlier. There was no Armstrong to meet them, so they wended their way to the room of the state president, disturbing his peaceful slumbers with their mirthful music. "Shake a leg, old top, and come
on down to the depot to meet us."
"Please go 'way and let me sleep"
was the only effort made by the fatigue president. From there the musical disturbers continued to the Hotel Doering where they tied "Doc"
Williams to his cot, with the remark,
"We'll beat you at your own game,
this time."

ATTORNEY GENERAL SANCTIONS CHANGES

MADISON, Wis., June 23.—In an opinion to the state highway commission today, Attorney General Owen
says, in regard to the suggested changes in the re-location and realignment of the track of the Manitowoc and Northern Traction company, that the supervisors of the town of Manitowoc can order such action. The attorney general says that such official action would be sustained at a reasonable exercise of police power of regulation conferred upon the town.

RIVAL DELEGATES BATTLE FOR NEXT YEAR'S CONVENTION

Cincinnati and Los Angeles After 1916 Convention of the Advertising Clubs

CHICAGO, June 23.—Delegates from Cincinnati and Los Angeles were engaged in a battle on the floor of the convention of the Advertising Clubs today over the naming of the city for the next convention. Both cities are making a terrific battle to bring the ad men to their cities in 1916 and the voting is expected to be close.

A possibility of a contest of Herbert H. Soustou of Boston, candidate to succeed President William Woodhead was intimated today when George S. Coleman of Boston was mentioned frequently as a candidate. Other candidates for offices, with the exception of Louis E. Kirstein of Boston, who is trying for a place on the executive committee have little opposition. George W. Thomas, Dallas, Texas, will probably be elected vice president, and A. S. Flores, Chicago, secretary and treasurer.

Newspaper publishers at yesterday's conference adopted the following standard of practice as follows: To maintain advertising rates as published; oppose free publicity; make true circulation statements; reject fake ads.

TAX UNMARRIED PEOPLE TO MEET DEFICITS OF WAR

AMSTERDAM, June 23.—A bachelor and spinster tax, graduated according to age, has been imposed in a number of Austrian and German villages to meet deficits caused by the war. Young bachelors and spinsters under 30 are lightly taxed, but in some instances those over 40 years of age are forced to pay $250.

A man who has his price usually has a cheap one.

HAVE DARK HAIR AND LOOK YOUNG

Nobody can Tell when you Darken Gray, Faded Hair with Sage Tea.

Grandmother kept her hair beautifully darkened, glossy and abundant with a brew of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Whenever her hair fell out or took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect. By asking at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get a large bottle of this old-time recipe, ready to use, for about 50 cents. This simple mixture can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair and is splendid for dandruff, dry, itchy scalp and falling hair. A well-known down druggist says everybody uses Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur, because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied—it's so easy to use, too. You simply dampen a comb or soft brush and draw it through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two, it is restored to its natural color and looks glossy, soft and abundant.

HARVEY ELECTED TRACK CAPTAIN

MADISON, Wis., June 23.—Dow Harvey, Aurora, Ill., crack distance runner, has been elected captain of the 1916 Wisconsin track team. Harvey has been a member of the track team for two years, and next year he will be a senior in the college of engineering.

Harvey and three other members of the championship Wisconsin track team, Mucks, Stiles and Booth, are in training at Camp Randall for the elimination trials at Chicago, July 2, to determine the personnel of the Wisconsin team which will compete at the Panama-Pacific exposition in August. Wisconsin should qualify at least three men for the western trip according to records of the past season.

WELSH TO RUN HEALTH RESORT NEAR LOCKPORT

LOS ANGELES, Cal., June 23.—Freddie Welsh will retire from the ring within the year, purchase the Selby-Brown estate near Lockport, N. Y., and establish there a health resort.

Mrs. Freddie Welsh, who arrived here today for a vacation, made this announcement of the lightweight champion's plans. He will arrive here in July for a rest also, she stated. Welsh expects to pay $32,000 for the Lockport property on which he hopes to build up for profit, worn out business men a la Muldoon.

Nor was it a quiet day at Detroit, where the Tigers and Browns went wild. Thirty-eight hits were registered in fifteen innings; three were triples and seven doubles.

Rube Marquard was probably mighty glad it rained and stopped the trimming he was due to get from the Phillies, with Alexander the Great opposing him.

The boys had their bats out in Brooklyn also. The Brookfeds tapped old Doc Crandall for three singles, two triples and that homer in the two seasons he lasted.

The sixth straight win of the Rowlanders increased their lead over the Red Sox to 58 points.

Buck Weaver was a busy lad during the White Sox win over Cleveland. He singled twice out of three times up, stole one bag, had three runs and four errors.

MEAT CAUSE OF KIDNEY TROUBLE

Take Salts to flush Kidneys if Back hurts or Bladder bothers.

If you must have your meat every day, eat it, but flush your kidneys with salts occasionally, says a noted authority who tells us that meat forms uric acid which almost paralyzes the kidneys in their efforts to expel it from the blood. They become sluggish and weaken, then you suffer with a dull misery in the kidney region, sharp pains in the back or sick headache, dizziness, your stomach aches, tongue is coated and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine gets cloudy, full of sediment, the channels often get sore and irritated, obliging you to seek relief two or three times during the night.

To neutralize these irritating acids, to cleanse the kidneys and flush off the body's urinous waste get four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy here; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate sluggish kidneys, also to neutralize the acids in urine, so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure, and makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink.

HANS WAGNER SETS ANOTHER MARK WITH HUNDREDTH HOMER

PITTSBURGH, Pa., June 23.—Hans Wagner has further cinched his tablet in the baseball hall of fame, it developed today. Sport writers who have been poring over the lore declare that his hundredth home run, batted out in the game with the Phillies here on Monday, gave him a unique record.

Having made more hits than any big league player, they said, Honus has also set a high water mark in the "big time" circuits by slamming out his 100 fence chippers.

Birmingham has been barred from the grounds and club house.

Much unnecessary trouble is made by persons who always say just what they think.—Albany Journal.

CENSORSHIP BOARD FOR ADVERTISERS ISSUE OF AD MEN

Advertising Men at Chicago Suggest National Board for Elimination of Quackery

The Newspaper

Born of the deep daily need of a nation—I am the voice of Now. The incarnate spirit of the Times—Monarch of Things that Are.

My "cold type" burns with the fire blood of human action. I am fed by arteries of wire that girdle the world. I drink from the cup of every living joy and sorrow. I sleep not—rest not. I know not night nor day, nor season. I know no death, yet I am born again with every morn— with every moon—with every twilight. I leap into fresh being with every new world's event.

Those who created me cease to be. Yet I live on and on. My responsibility is infinite. I speak and the world stops to listen. I say the word and battle flames the horizon. I counsel peace and the war lords obey. I am the hands of the clock of Time—the clarion voice of Civilization.—Joseph H. Finn, before Ad Men's convention.

CHICAGO, June 23.—A national board of censorship of advertising was noted today as the first progressive issue to be stood for by the Associated Advertising Clubs of the World, in eleventh annual session here. Such a body as that proposed—and backed by a liberal shower of generous contributions—was aimed at the heart of quackery, fake ads, exaggerated ads, and the "special sale" ads put out by unscrupulous merchants, manufacturers and sales folk.

Merle Snyder, chairman of the vigilance committee, outlined at a dozen informal meetings today the proposal that the Associated clubs employ a salaried force of lawyers, detectives, physicists, chemists and other specialists to examine all suspicious advertising and put it to the test, as a means of eliminating fakes and exaggerations which were decared to be unbelievably numerous.

Part of today's time was to be devoted to discussion of the details of organizing the national board of censorship of advertising.

Van Hise Makes Hit

Delegates commented favorably today on the "straight-from-the-shoulder" speech made by President Van Hise of the University of Wisconsin. "You standpater," declared Van Hise, "the man who sits and cries out against changing the existing order of things, makes more socialists than the man who goes out and preaches socialism. I am not a socialist but I believe the longer the condition of unemployment and the unjust distribution of wealth continues, the more socialists we will have and the faster the condition is remedied the fewer socialists we will have."

Van Hise suggested as one solution of the unemployment problem, that men be skilled in more than one pursuit or trade, so that when thrown out of one job he may turn to another "supplemental job." Another possible solution was the lessening of the expense of getting farm products to the consumer. Another was insurance against unemployment, shorter hours, better sanitation and free employment agencies.

PALE BEAUTY FADES

The girl who comes home from school or shop tired out every day may be beautiful but she will soon fade. She will be fortunate if she escapes a physical breakdown because the ease with which she tires is probably the first warning symptom of a thinning of the blood that cannot be disregarded.

Thin blood may give an attractive pallor for a short time but soon the patient becomes thin, flat-chested, haggard and angular. The only beauty that endures is that of rich, red blood shining through a transparent skin.

Almost any girl can build up her blood by using Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. They are useful to growing girls, to pale girls, thin girls and those who get tired or out of breath easily. Mothers of such girls should see to it that the tendency to anemia is checked by the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills before the trouble becomes chronic.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills will build up the blood if anything will. They are free from opiates or harmful drugs and can be taken with perfect safety by anyone. Your own druggist sells them so you can begin the treatment at once. A helpful booklet, "Building Up the Blood" will be sent you free on request by the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y.

CHILDREN START FIRE IN HOME

Children playing with matches in the attic of the residence of George Osterhout, 1427 Wood street, caused damage to the extent of $600 on Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The attic had been used as a playroom by the children. It is thought that the children lighted a candle, later leaving the room and the burning candle. Having occasion to leave the house, Mrs. Osterhout noticed that the upper portion of her home was a mass of flames. Fire company No. 4 responded to the alarm.

HERE'S A GOOD ONE GOODWIN WANTS TO COLLECT FOR COLD

MILWAUKEE, Wis., June 23.—

Nat C. Goodwin, America's foremost matrimonial expert, had a $500 cold last winter. This became known today when he started two suits for damages against the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railroad in the local civil court.

Goodwin recites that a train on the Milwaukee became stalled eighteen miles from Dubuque, Iowa, while enroute from Red Wing, Minn., to that city on January 3, and that the members of his theatrical troupe were forced to wade through two feet of snow to get around a long string of freight cars. Nat got his toes damped and contracted a bad cold—$500 worth, he says.

The other suit is based on the allegation that the delay forced him to cancel his engagement at Duquesne that night and at Milwaukee the following night. He asks $1,500 damages for the lost revenue.

Various Forms Of Headache

"It is necessary in order to treat headaches properly to understand the causes which produce the affection," says Dr. J. W. Ray of Brockton, Ala. Continuing he says: "Physicians cannot even begin the treatment of a disease without knowing what causes give rise to it, and we must remember that headache is to be treated according to the same rule. We must not only be particular to give a remedy intended to counteract the cause which produces the headache, but we must also give a remedy to relieve the pain until the cause of the trouble has been removed. To answer this purpose Anti-kamnia Tablets will be found a most convenient and satisfactory remedy. One tablet every one to three hours gives comfort and rest in the most severe cases of headache, neuralgia and particularly the headaches of women."

When we have a patient subject to regular attacks of sick headache, we should caution him to keep his bowels regular, for which nothing is better than "Actoids", and when he feels the least sign of an oncoming attack, he should take two A-K Tablets. Such patients should always be instructed to carry a few Anti-kamnia Tablets, so as to have them ready for instant use. These tablets are prompt in action, and can be depended on to produce relief in a very few minutes. Ask for A-K Tablets.

Anti-kamnia Tablets can be obtained at all druggists.

Peter F. Schuster left his wife and three children in Aurora, February 21, and has not been heard of since.
